Outside Manor Barn is approached via a shared driveway with the neighbouring Tremodrett House. We understand both properties both contribute to any maintenance of the driveway. A timber gate opens to Manor Barn's driveway which offers parking for several cars. An area of level lawn sits in front of a patio area which may be accessed from the French doors of the lounge. This makes for a pleasant sitting out space. A side pathway leads up to the door into the utility and has a timber storage space for LPG cylinders. On the other side of the front garden space there is space for a series of outside storage sheds, with a recently constructed timber car port adjacent to this. A wider gravelled space leads up the side of the house to the main entrance, which is bordered by an attractive Cornish wall.
