The picturesque positioning of the development provides incredible views over the surrounding countryside. It's just 1.25 miles North of the historical and hugely desirable village of Houston. The development benefits from falling within the Gryffe catchment, whilst retaining a lovely rural feel.

Chapel Farm is just a short walk to highly regarded village pubs in Houston which makes it perfect for Sunday lunches and the opportunity to relax and unwind without having to travel too far.

The village boasts great amenities including local shops, doctor's surgery and a dental practice. There are also leisure facilities to be found in Houston including a bowling club plus a tennis and squash club. There are two golf clubs close by in the neighbouring village of Bridge of Weir. Also nearby is the village of Bishopton with the renowned Ingliston Equestrian Centre and Bishopton also has a train station.

A great education is the foundation for a better future...

The steading falls within the Gryffe catchment which encompasses Houston Primary School, St Fillan's Primary School as well as Gryffe High School; all of which are highly regarded. For local independent schooling, a short drive is the village of Kilmacolm where you'll find both St Columba's Junior and Senior schools which boast an enviable academic record.
