Welcome to Burdock Close, Wymondham, NR18. Greeting you with an abundance of space upon entry, the ground floor showcases modern living at its best, featuring a recently installed Wren kitchen that forms the heart of the home. Complete with integrated appliances, an abundance of storage cupboards and a dedicated utility corner enhancing this practical living space.

A versatile first floor accommodates a warming lounge boasting a Juliette balcony and offering plenty of floorspace to play around with. The adjacent bedroom could easily transform into a dedicated home office, hobby space or gaming room. As mentioned above...even more storage here too!

Set on the second floor, the principle bedroom provides an extensive built-in double wardrobe and en-suite shower room, alongside a further bedroom and family bathroom. Furthermore, this home benefits from a recently installed boiler, double-glazing throughout and freshly laid carpets.

To the outside, you will be pleased to find a non-overlooked and low-maintenance garden creating a peaceful outdoor canvas to make your own. The all-important garage covers all of your excess storage needs, alongside private off-street parking you can rely on.

Located within a 15 – 20 minute walk of Wymondham town centre, train station, all supermarkets and schools, this home sets you within a tranquil community without seclusion from daily essentials. The A11 can be accessed via two directions within a couple of minutes and electric bus routes are close by. Set on the edge of Ketts Park, you may consider taking up tennis or football as excellent ways to enjoy this lush green expanse.
