Welcome to Briggs Mead, Wymondham. Built in 2019, this house has been extensively extended and remodelled maximising its use of space inside and out. An inviting frontage includes a paved driveway, a single garage and gated access to the garden as well as a wooded backdrop. Of worthy note is also the access to well-maintained public footpaths for stretching legs (whether yours or a 4-legged friend).

Now a 4-bedroom abode, the sellers have created a highly flexible space to accommodate a variety of requirements spanning bedrooms, hobby rooms or dressing rooms. Space has been thoughtfully designed to provide a roomy hallway, a cosy and desirable living space and a kitchen-dining room perfectly laid out and positioned for being the perfect host. The principal bedroom is a calming space with a contemporary shower room and a handy walk-in wardrobe. The bathroom is a relaxing retreat and enjoy views of the lush garden from all the living space.

The privileged positioning of this property has provided an unusually large L-shaped garden. The adjacent woodland doesn't just offer an evergreen backdrop and incredible privacy but also encourages visits from the likes of the resident hedgehog families. Under the Veranda extending from the kitchen-dining room is a good-sized patio and from the living room, a dainty decked area. Either well-suited for morning beverages or summer evening drinks. A detached garden office with light and power is useful and could be replaced with a larger summer house.

Within walking distance is the popular Wymondham Rugby Club for enjoying both live sport on the field and sharing in broadcast events. There are reliable bus routes into Wymondham town centre, Norwich and other destinations. Our market town offers an array of local businesses, eateries, daily amenities, and a train station. There are three major supermarkets, a medical centre, and multiple gyms. The highly rated Park Farm Hotel with pool and sports club is also less than a 5-minute drive away.

There is nothing like viewing a prospective home in person. We are open 24/7 to receive your request and look forward to welcoming you.
