Welcome to Wymondham Road, Bunwell. Dating to circa 1900, it's clear the moment you set foot inside, this home has been adoringly cared for. Initially greeted by a neat, low-maintenance front garden, the aesthetically pleasing front porch adds convenience before entering the living room: a delightful space full of natural brightness and warmed by the recently installed woodburner.

Adjacent, you will find a cosy dining room featuring an exposed beam and a tasteful serving hatch to the kitchen, adding unique charm. This thoughtful layout allows you to flow in and out between rooms with ease, whilst modern touches offer the perfect contrast. The kitchen is well-proportioned, with extensive worktops (an ambitious baker's dream), integrated appliances, and abundant storage. Set to the rear is a useful lobby with access to the garden and cloakroom, adding everyday convenience and further storage: an ideal space for wet paws and wellies alike.

The first floor comprises two double bedrooms (the front enjoying brilliant views of arable fields for miles) and a comfortable bathroom with a shower over the bath, a hot airing cupboard, and a skylight for that all-important daylight. On the top floor, a bright converted attic room awaits: wooden floorboards, a Velux window, and eaves storage both front and back mean easy optimisation of space, be it a home office, hobby, or gaming room.

Outside, a westerly-facing garden with a treetop horizon and true tranquillity awaits. A large sandstone patio extending from the back of the house is well-suited to alfresco dining and entertaining, with ample space for a BBQ. At the end of the garden, a gate leads to the extensive carport with space for 2-3 vehicles and a timber-framed workshop with light and power - many weekends and evenings have been spent on projects and odd jobs here!

As hinted above, this is a dreamy location for dog-lovers: you can walk for miles, away from busy roads and surrounded by local wildlife. Why not walk, doggy pals included, to enjoy a Sunday roast at The Boars. Amenity-wise, there is a corner shop within the village, Wymondham and Attleborough are within a 12-minute drive, and Norwich city centre is within a half-hour drive. Reliable train links to Norwich, Cambridge, London and Stansted depart from Wymondham and Attleborough.

For those seeking a peaceful lifestyle and an abundance of countryside to enjoy on foot, bike or during a commute, this home offers an array of benefits and convenience rarely found alongside character. Book your viewing today.
